Duration: 11 days

Price range: USD$ 4,195. per person

Minimum Group Size: 4 persons

Category: Hard Adventure

“The Pakaraima Trekking Adventure” entails, 4*4 driving thru Guyana's unfriendly terrain, trekking thru savannahs and rainforests, hiking some of the more challenging mountain ranges, out-door camping and more! This off the path adventure was designed for those hard-core enthusiasts, looking for some great adventure and unforgettable experience. It combines, the North Rupununi Savannahs and Wetlands, South and North Pakaraima Mountains, Orinduik Falls on the Guyana-Brazil Frontier, and Kaieteur Falls, world's largest single drop waterfalls, to name a few of the attractions. It encompasses more than two dozen Amerindian Villages with the Machusi & Wapishana Tribes to the North Rupununi Savannahs & South Pakaraimas, and Patamonas and Arawaks to the North Pakaraima Mountains. This tour is only possible during the dry months- August to April.

For each of the six days 4-9, the team will set off on foot trekking and hiking the savannahs, rainforests and mountains, a path that few have travelled before. Treks will be around 4-5 hours daily, depending on the weather and other factors. The team will be supported by an advance party on one or more 4*4 vehicles loaded with all essentials that will set up camps, prepare meals etc and provide any support necessary. Sleeping will be in hammocks, supported with mosquito nets in a make shift tarpaulin camp
